

2013 Emerald/AFAM Africa Management Research Fund Award in collaboration with INASP and IAABD

Submit your research proposal for a chance to win international recognition and a cash prize

Emerald and the African Academy of Management (AFAM), in association with INASP and the International Academy of African Business and Development (IAABD), are delighted to offer a research grant for an African project in the field of management research. There will be an award of £2,500 (or currency equivalent) to fund or part-fund the winning research project.

Selected applicants will receive mentoring to support them in turning their research into a publishable article.

Applications should address the creation and dissemination of knowledge for the social good, with a specific orientation toward benefit for Africa.

Eligibility

The main member of the research team must originate from Africa or be based at an African Institution.
