

Call for Workshop Participants

Africa Faculty Development Workshop [Pretoria, South Africa]

The Africa Academy of Management (AFAM) would like to announce a continuation of the Africa Faculty Development Workshops (AFDW) that were held in conjunction with the Academy of Management (AOM) in Kigali, Rwanda and Accra, Ghana. The next workshop will be held from 29 June to 3 July, 2015 hosted by the University of Pretoria, South Africa. Applications for this workshop are welcomed through 27 February 2015.

AFAM invites scholars from across the African continent to engage in an intensive weeklong seminar to improve upon the theory, methodology, and presentation of their research projects. This meeting will feature interactive paper development sessions, presentations and discussions with local leaders, and networking opportunities. AFD Workshops are open to participation by junior faculty members and advanced PhD students whose research focuses on organizational and management issues in business, government, and civil society in Africa. For more information about the AFD Workshop, please review the attached document, Application Instructions for AFD Workshop, or visit the AFAM Website at: <http://www.africa-aom.org/>

The Africa Faculty Development Workshops are a series of programs aimed at promoting excellent PhD and new faculty research, assisting with the advancement of research scholarship, and helping to develop the next generation of Africa's academic leaders. Two previous workshops sponsored and funded by the Academy of Management were held in Accra, Ghana in 2011 and in Kigali, Rwanda in 2012. To learn more about the history of this exciting initiative, please visit the AOM AFD Workshops website <http://aom.org/Meetings/Africa-Faculty-Development-Workshops.aspx>

About the Africa Academy of Management (AFAM)

AFAM is a not-for-profit association of academics and practitioners interested in advancing research and education about management in Africa. Its membership is comprised of academics, students and practitioners in all regions of Africa and the diaspora. AFAM believes Management knowledge can make a significant contribution to productivity and prosperity of Africa. Our mission is to help close this gap by promoting research and education about management and organizations in Africa. Our initiatives focus on building and strengthening research capacity and education about management in Africa. Since its founding, AFAM has held a successful international conference at the University of Botswana in 2014. The second biennial conference is underway for 2016 at Strathmore University in Nairobi, Kenya. AFAM is also launching the Africa Journal of Management (AJOM) in 2015 published by Taylor & Francis.
